Body of an Infant Found in Creek Near Kilby Station.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 2.—Sewed into a sheet, which had been its shroud as well, the body of an infant was found this afternoon floating on the creek, which the Seaboard Air Line crosses, near Kilby station. The find was reported to Sheriff Baker, who has or-Urred an inquest for 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A WHISKEY BOTTLE.

Tied to the infant was a half-pint whiskey bottle. It may have been fastened on the little one's person to keep it affoat. The body had been in the water about 24 or 36 hours seemingly. The corpse was put into a box and placed in the keeping of Louis Joyner, who lives near the pump-house.

JIM BRITTLE SENTENCED.

The counsel for James Brittle, one of the men charged with murder in Isle of Wight, to-day abandoned hope of laving him freed through appeal. Britle was sentenced by County Judge Atkinson to five years in State's prison.

The cases against Sam Beale and Edward White, whose accomplice Brittle was alleged to be, were continued.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD BURGLAR.

Joshua Bunn, a 12-year-old burglar, started early on a career of crime. Following a number of thefts, which have been laid at his door, he began operating on stores. Josh had been touching a money-drawer in Joseph P. Hall's drug-store every Sunday for a month. They tried to find out who did touching a money-drawer in Joseph P. Hall's drug-store every Sunday for a month. They tried to find out who did it, but didn't, and Josh believed he had a good thing. He kept on pushing it till he did it once too often. Josh got caught about 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, by Mr. W. A. Almond, one of Mr. Hall's pharmacists, who had been on watch since daylight. The boy undid the window lock, cautionsly, pulled down the top sash and climbed over the sharp iron bars, where there was just enough room for his body to squeeze through. just enough room for his body to squeeze through. When he was about to pull the drawer Mr. Almond stopped him.

Josh was given forty stripes in the Police Court this morning. Chief Ames put it on good and hard.

The stripes were given in pursuance of his mother's request. She asked that the boy be beaten on the condition that the $21.80 was remitted.

MUST BE MAILED SOONER.

Postmaster Harper said to-day that for the next month mail would have to be put into the postoffice at least thirty minutes before train time. That's because the government requires all mail matter to be weighed during that period. It takes time to weigh it.

VAUDEVILLE SHOW.

The Garry Vaudeville combination will be the attraction at the City Hail Theatre Thursday and Friday, October 5th and 6th. Among the people to be seen are Garry and Walters in illustrated songs, introducing a double dissolving stereopticon, featuring Norfolk's young composer's latest success, Prof. Casey's song, "Where Is My Boy To-night." Mis Fiorrie Parker, in upto-date coon songs; Walter Beaufort, king of tramp monologuists; Miss Bessic Booth, acrobatic dancer; Hollister and Beaufort, in the screaming farce "Rooms to Rent;" J. A. Kelly in his inimitable parodies. The vaudeville is refined, clean and up-to-date. Popular prices. Seats on sale Wednesday morning.

FELL FROM BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

Culley Winborne, 9 years old, Sunday fell off Brooklyn bridge and broke an arm. It was not the big Brooklyn bridge, but a little wood structure on Pinner street. Culley was accidently pushed off by Ruth Monell, aged 7, with whom he had been playing. Both bones in the right forearm were fractured. The boy was taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phill. I. Winborne, at Pinner and Pearl streets. Dr. John E. Phillips fixed the broken bones.

HATED TO HAVE HIM GO.

SAW MILL BURNED.

MILL OF KEMP LUMBER COM-PANY BURNED SATURDAY NIGHT.

Word reached Norfolk yesterday that the saw mill of the Kemp Lumber Company located on the Albemarle and Chesapenke Canal, about twenty miles from the city, bud burned to the ground Saturday night.

The mill has been there for several years and had a cupacity of about 8,000 feet of lumber a day, it employed about ten men. The plant there also includes a logging outfit, tracks and trainways. Only the mill was burned. Probably $1,000 to $5,000 will cover the loss. There were two shingle mechanes in the mill. The fire is supposed to have caught from the camp are of some of the negro hands really during their temporary absence.
